

2010 Winter Games Weather Information

The following are the essential Internet and telephone sources of weather information for the Vancouver-Whistler area. Environment Canada is the official weather services provider for the 2010 Winter Games.

Internet

- 1) Canadian Weather <http://www.weatheroffice.gc.ca>
 Current and historical weather conditions, forecasts, warnings, almanacs, radar and satellite imagery.
- 2) 2010 Winter Games Weather <http://www.weatheroffice.gc.ca/2010>
 Current and historical weather conditions, venue forecasts, almanacs, radar and satellite for the Vancouver-Whistler area and the 2010 Games venues.
- 3) Media Website http://media.weatheroffice.gc.ca/winter2010/registration_e.html
 A free media-only pre-configured website that includes all the above plus a daily video weather briefing.
- 4) Winter Weather Vignettes <http://www.youtube.com/environmentcan>
 Short video answers to frequently-asked questions about winter weather patterns that affect Vancouver-Whistler.

Telephone

		Hours (PST)	Charges
1) The Severe Weather Media Access Line	1 866 672 5463	24/7	none
Consultation with a meteorologist, information and interviews regarding severe weather only.
2) Consultation	1 900 565 5555 1 866 292 2222	5am-9pm (Mon-Fri) 6am-6pm (Sat-Sun)	$2.99/min $2.99/min
Consultation with a meteorologist for information regarding any weather.
3) Recorded Weather Info	604 664 9010	24/7	none
Menu-driven automated access to recorded weather forecasts and conditions.			